Part III, line 2: The Coalition worked to educate and advocate for government reforms that would result in a stronger economy, lower taxes, more jobs and a balanced budget. It also advocated for less government regulation to keep energy prices low and create jobs.

It did so through public advertising and grass-roots activism.

Part III, line 1: Description of primary exempt purpose:

The corporation was formed for the common good and general welfare to educate and advocate for free enterprise, limited government, economic growth, and traditional values.

Part VI, 1. 11b: The return is prepared by counsel and circulated to the corporation's President and sole director for comment and approval.

Once that approval is obtained, the President directs the Treasurer to sign and file the return.

Part VI, 1. 19: The corporation keeps its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements at its main office address, and makes them available for inspection at that office by appointment upon request.

Part VI, 1. 12c: The corporation reviews the policy at its annual meeting of directors and the directors disclose potential conflicts at that time.

At other times, directors consult with counsel regarding potential conflicts of interest and disclose any such conflicts.
